Miertje Skidmore

"Western-Australian born and now Adelaide-based artist Miertje Skidmore's work is widely represented in respected galleries throughout Australia, and is rapidly being sought by collectors within Australia and overseas countries in both corporate and private collections, including that of Princess Monika of Germany. Miertje's large-scale abstract pieces use colour as the main form of expression. According to Miertje, ? Art often is seen and felt as an enlightening and emotive personal experience.?
